

It may not feel like it yet, but Spring is on its way! Spring officially begins on March 20, so you may want to start thinking about planting flowers and gardens.

If you're a flower fanatic, check out the books "Fearless Color Gardens" by Keeyla Meadows and "Perennials for Midwestern Gardens" by Anthony W. Kahtz for some floral inspiration.

If you're focused on vegetable gardening, take a look at "The Speedy Vegetable Garden" by Mark Diacono and "The Guide to Ohio Vegetable Gardening" by James A. Fizzell for directions, tips, and even some recipes.

And if you're short on space, try "Easy Growing: Organic Herbs and Edible Flowers in Small Spaces" by Gayla Trail or "Small-Space Container Gardens" by Fern Richardson for know-how and motivation.

In the library, check out Dewey number 635 in the non-fiction to find these and a huge selection of other gardening books. Happy growing!

Blind Date with a Book!

Sometimes you get in a reading rut. It's good to have favorites, but sometimes it's good to step outside your reading 'comfort zone'. With "Blind Date with a Book", a selection of some of our favorite books are on display in a plain brown wrapper with three words or phrases that describe the book written on the front. Your review of the book you choose could win you one of the Library's sturdy canvas book bags. Stop by to see the display by the DVDs.

Book Signing - March 8

The Clyde Public Library was proud to play a role in the writing of The Clydesdale Motor Truck Company: An Illustrated History, 1917-1939, by Tiffany Willey Middleton and James Semon. Staff members Jill McCullough, Christie Armstrong and Nelcy Elder were acknowledged in the book: Nelcy for her help in translating letters and advertisements from Uruguay, Christie for her help in improving the quality of some of the many images found in the book, and Jill for research. Tiffany is a Clyde, Ohio, native and historian who works for the American Bar Association in Chicago, Illinois. James M. Semon, a transportation enthusiast and author of several railroad books, lives in Westlake, Ohio. Both authors will be at the Clyde Public Library on Saturday, March 8, at 1 p.m. to talk about and sign copies of their book, which will be available for sale. No registration is required for this free program.

DIRECTOR'S PICK

"Glitter and Glue: A Memoir"
by Kelly Corrigan

"Corrigan remains a lively, nimble cheerleader for the joys of family." ~People

"Kelly Corrigan is no stranger to mining the depths of her heart. . . . [In] Glitter and Glue, Corrigan turns the microscope on her relationship with her own mother. . . . Through her own experience of caring for children, she begins, for the first time, to appreciate the complex woman who raised her."

~O: The Oprah Magazine

"Kelly Corrigan's heartfelt homage to motherhood is every bit as tough and funny as it is nostalgic and searching. It's a tale about growing up, gaining wisdom, and reconciling with Mom (something we all must do eventually), but it's also an honest meditation on our deepest fears of death and abandonment. I loved this book, I was moved by this book, and now I will share this book with my own mother—along with my renewed appreciation for certain debts of love that can never be repaid."

~Elizabeth Gilbert,

NYT bestselling author of Eat, Pray, Love

"Thank you, Fraternal Order of Eagles Ladies' Auxiliary and Women of the Moose, for your generous donations to this year's Summer Reading program!"
